

12/7/16 – Koo

Danbury is home to a multitude of dishes and flavors that any and all of our residents and visitors will be certain to enjoy. One place in particular gives our Danburians a diverse taste of Asian fusion.

Koo, marketed as a neo-Asian restaurant, is home to a large menu ready to satisfy your cravings.

Koo offers hibachi dinners, signature Japanese sushi rolls, and typical entrees reflecting that of Thai, Chinese and other Asian cuisines. The restaurant even plays with your taste buds by turning their regular dishes into tapas-style!

Proud to be one of the few places offering free delivery, Koo can deliver to a handful of towns in the Greater Danbury area and of course any location within the city.

This restaurant truly takes a modern interpretation of classic dishes, making your experience unique. Koo also offers all of their customers a tasty meal by using high quality, fresh ingredients.

Koo is located on 29 E Pembroke Road and is open 7 days a week!
